MOST MAY ESCAPE PRISON.
Supreme Court Issues Certificate
Acting as a Stay.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
New York, Oct. 29.—Judge MacLean of the Supreme Court declares that John Most is entitled to a certificate of reasonable doubt from his conviction in the Court of Special Sessions and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Penitentiary on account of a publication in Der Freiheit about the time of the shooting of President McKinley. The certificate will act as a stay pending the appeal, and as soon as the necessary papers can be prepared an application will be made for the release of Most on bail. Judge MacLean in his opinion writes:

"The only proof appearing on the return to support this judgment is that the defendant published an article, expressing certain sentiments, written by another half century ago, and published it as his own in a paper confessedly of some circulation, but of which he shows but a single copy—that purchased by the police, probably for the purpose of prosecution.
It seems not hard to divine two of the persons, if not the third, against whom all long since dead—the real author directed his diatribe, compacted somewhat of notions discussed in reputable lectures and treatises upon the law, somewhat of phrases familiar to those who are familiar with the memoirs of actors in the American and French revolutions. These do not outrage public decency in the judicially accepted sense. To widen this commonly accepted definition to include every opportune meaning allowed by the etymology of the pregnant word would open a field of construction wide, indeed, impossible to traverse, even afford that latitude of reason of construction, safeguard of liberty of the press apprehended by Hamilton and leaves its security altogether to depend upon public opinion and the general sentiment of the people and of the Government."

noyance of having desert that is "Just a

INDIANA SOCIETY'S BANQUET.
November 21 Set Apart for the Annual Feast.

At a meeting of the Indiana Society last night at the Planters Hotel, presided over by President J. F. Fisher, it was decided to give the annual banquet of the society on November 21. President Fisher, Secretary Myron M. Mosher and Treasurer Lillie were appointed a committee to make all arrangements, including invitations to speakers and other guests.

Federal World's Fair Commissioner John F. Miller of Richmond, Ind., was elected an honorary member of the society by a rising vote.
A resolution was adopted pledging the society to assist in the building of the Mississippi Valley Trust Company, which is to be the headquarters of the world's fair, and to store the treasures of art, literature and historical records, and a committee of three, composed of Charles M. Reeves, J. J. Ball, Flory and M. Wright, was appointed to represent the society in this important undertaking.

LIPTON'S SCHEME MAY HELP THE SOUTH.

British Syndicate Planning to Supply European Stores With Southern Products.

MARKET FOR TURKEY GOBBLER

It Is Proposed to Establish Line of Steamers to Transport Supplies—From Georgia to London.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 29.—The Albany (Ga.) Herald today makes public a great enterprise, said to have been quietly engineered by Sir Thomas Lipton during his recent visit to this country. It says in part:

"Captain Sam B. Hunter of Macon, Ga., representing a company of English capitalists, has been taking options on lands in Dougherty, Lee, Colquhoun, Terrell and, perhaps, other counties in this part of the State, and there has been much inquiry and speculation as to what it all meant." The following from the Macon Telegraph is believed to show what is wanted with the land:

"A representative of the Lipton company called upon Secretary of State Nathan C. Cook at the Capitol last Friday in reference to a matter that may mean a great deal to the South, which bids fair to revolutionize the farming industry. This gentleman was Doctor John Alton Harris of London, who came duly accredited as the agent of the company of which Sir Thomas Lipton is the president."

"The management has found it difficult to supply the demands of the products of the farms, and has hit upon the scheme to establish farming stations at different intervals in Southern Georgia.
"In order to export the products the company will establish a line of steamers between Savannah, Ga., and Liverpool, England."

"It is a scheme pregnant with great possibilities for this section and is a good thing too for the Lipton people, for investigation has shown them that a higher and more abundant production per acre is possible in the South Georgia lands of 85 per cent than in the 30 and 40 per cent patches in Europe."

Headquarters for Supplies.
"Mr. Harris talked freely with people about the possibilities of truck farming in this State, and unfolded the plan to make this territory a productive area from which the 1,000 European stores could draw an unfailing supply of 'truck' cattle, sheep, poultry, etc. Doctor Harris's object was to find out if the surrounding farmers would co-operate and go more into diversified farming. He was assured on all sides that they would."

"In speaking of the matter, Doctor Harris expressed surprise at the exceedingly low prices for poultry that prevail in this State.
While in South Georgia, he said that he priced turkey gobblers at 75 cents to $1.
"I was utterly astonished," he said. "Why, in Europe they are worth from $5 to $8 each. I saw one of the best of the Georgia farmers, he will get a much better price for his product, a ready and never-failing market, cash on the spot, and no delay and embarrassment consequent upon the commission business. We will also take all your oranges, lemons, pineapples, etc."

CASTRO'S HOSTAGE ESCAPES.
Daughter of Former Minister Rescued from Venezuela.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
Port of Spain, Trinidad, Oct. 29.—Miss C.
Beccera, the beautiful daughter of Ricardo Beccera, who was Colombian Minister to Washington fifteen years ago, has at last succeeded in escaping from the country where she has been detained as a hostage by President Castro and has rejoined her family here, where her father, who is now blind, has resided since his expulsion from Venezuela.

Her brothers are Consuls for Colombia in Trinidad and Curacao, and President Castro has refused to permit her deportation, desiring to hold her as a hostage for them.

With the assistance of an officer of a French steamer which plies between La Guayra and Trinidad she succeeded in eluding those set to watch her and, dressed as a nurse, escaped to Trinidad.

Miss Beccera, who has been trying for two months to leave Venezuela, is a remarkably beautiful young woman. She was educated in the United States.

HE WAS TIRED OF LIVING.
School Principal Writes Letter to Friend, Then Kills Himself.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Marceline, Mo., Oct. 29.—T. Campbell Downing, aged 21 years, principal of the public schools at Bucklin, five miles north of here, shot himself through the heart at midnight last night in his room at the Hotel Hotel in that city.

He was the son of T. J. Downing, a physician of New York, and had been a student of William Jewell College at Liberty, Mo., class of '98. He left a letter to J. P.
Fitzgerald, editor of the Bucklin News, in which he said:

"Dear John: Have decided to get off the earth. Take care of everything in my room and lock them up good and tight. See to it that no one reads the letters in my box. I am tired of living, that's the whole reason. Goodbye old man, see you some time later. With best wishes to you and your family."
He used a cheap .22-caliber revolver. He was cheerful the night before and around usual with his young companions. He left a request that papers publish this and no more. "T. J. Downing, died June 29, 1890; died October 29, 1901. His life, like the lives of all men, may be summed up in the following words. He was born, he lived, he died."

"A man leaving Saint Louis at 5:30 p. m. to-day will reach Joplin at 7:55 to-morrow morning, provided his ticket reads via the Frisco System. Or he can leave Saint Louis at 10:30 p. m. and arrive at Joplin at 10:35 a.
m. next day via same route."

TRUSTS ARE MUCH CONCERNED Anxious to Learn Roosevelt's Views on Combines.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Washington, Oct. 29.—Great corporations in the United States are evincing a deep interest in the attitude of President Roosevelt on the trust question, and the recommendations thereon which he will submit to Congress in his annual message.
Of late many prominent trust representatives have come to Washington for the purpose of ascertaining the President's views with respect to combinations of capital.
Mr. Oxnard of the beet-sugar association was here yesterday, and Colonel John J.
McCook, who is well acquainted with the views of New York corporations, dined with the President last night.

From what can be ascertained, the President has recommended no specific legislation. His views will be expressed generally. The President has carefully studied the trust question from one of his great friends before Professor J. E. Jenks of Cornell, a trust expert, and member of the Industrial Commission, and the two have frequently discussed the subject. Mr. Roosevelt does not, consequently, need information, but at the same time he is listening to all the arguments advanced pro and con. Anything he may learn between now and the time his message is submitted to Congress, he is predicted, materially change his views.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
New Orleans, Oct. 29.—Plans and estimates for a Pittsburgh polytechnic institute are being prepared, at the request of Andrew Carnegie, which call for an outlay of $5,000-000 to $6,000,000 for buildings and an endowment fund of $2,500,000 more for maintenance. Mr. Carnegie is now on his way to this country, and when he reaches Pittsburgh the committee which has for several months been busily engaged will make a report to him. It is believed by the citizens of Pittsburgh that an institution is to be founded which will be the means of educating thousands of skilled artisans.

Judge John H. Cohen of the Orphans' Court of Pittsburgh, who is a member of the committee appointed at the request of Mr. Carnegie, is in this city. He was seen at the Polytechnic Institute. He admitted that the committee had made considerable progress in preparing its report for Mr. Carnegie, but was reluctant when asked for details.

According to the plans, there is to be a college, a school, and day and night schools for apprentices. These will give an opportunity for young men to obtain a thorough training in any of the trades which they may choose. Mr. Carnegie's institute was founded in Southampton for this purpose last Saturday.
